

Retreat October 10th, 2015

CONNECT ACROSS CULTURE WITH US

New to Worcester or Boston? Been here for a while? Millions of tourist flock to New England to see the fall foliage. While other parts of the country have foliage, none is as brilliant as you find here in New England, that is why millions of tourist come here spending millions of dollars to come. Now you can have the same opportunity and more for under $30!

Columbus Day October 13th is a university holiday. The Saturday of that weekend, October 10th, from morning until evening you can enjoy the beauty of the fall in New England on a lake in Hopkinton, MA (a short 40 minute ride from Boston or Worcester). You will make many new friends (both International and American) from Boston, Worcester and other campuses. Child care is available and this is great for families.

Join in for a fun and relaxing day in beautiful New England with a diverse group of people to share about our journeys in personal, spiritual, and professional/academic life. Take a break and have fun!

Activities like: hiking, kayaking, power boat rides on the lake, visit Wellesley College (with an alumni), visit Brown University, shopping to : H Mart or Wrentham Outlet or the Natick Mall.

Workshops selections: On various relevant topics for internationals.
(Where to travel in the U.S., English help, finding a job, Christianity in America and the Bible.)

Free time and enjoy the beautiful COLORFUL LEAVES (best fall time in New England)
